

Graham Bartlett

Year of Call 2000

---

Graham Bartlett was called to the Bar in 2000 after a successful career as a chartered loss adjuster. He also spent a number of years working in the litigation departments of several leading solicitors in Newcastle-upon-Tyne whilst completing an LLM in commercial law. His civil/commercial practice utilises his insurance and litigation knowledge and experience in a wide range of commercial and contractual matters, including company law and insolvency, disputes concerning the sale and supply of goods and services, professional negligence, regulatory offences, environmental law and construction.

He is an Associate of both the Chartered Insurance Institute and the Chartered Institute of Loss Adjusters and is a member of the British Insurance Lawyers Association. He combines his practice with a position as Senior Lecturer in Law at Northumbria University.
