

Ivor Frank

Year of Call 1979

Ivor Frank is a specialist in commercial fraud, tax fraud, money laundering, criminal defence, International commercial law, all aspects of family law and human rights law.

Counsel to Sidley & Austen attorneys, special advisor on U.S. Anti-Trust and European Competition Law, (including reporting on Senate Confirmation hearings on appointment of Special Attorney General for Anti-Trust).

NOTEWORTHY CASES

- International Counsel to the Dene Nation indigenous peoples of Canada.
- Has represented on behalf on the Free Representation Unit of the Bar Council
- Represented on behalf of the Mary Ward Legal Centre
- Given Lectures to the American Bar Association Insurance Litigation Division
- Representative of the Bar Council and of Amnesty International at the "Breton 7" inquest in Jamaica (2002)
- Written contributions to treasury on 2004 Children's Bill
- Written contributions to Home Office on International Child Abduction Law
- Member of All Parliamentary Group for Children and Young People in and leaving care
- Trustee of the Frank Buttle Trust

Other interests:

Astrology, Egyptology

Sports: Sailing (have obtained Yachtmaster Cert), flying (have obtained Private Pilot Licence with aerobatic rating, skiing (have acquired broken bones) and rowing