

Phillip Walling

Year of Call 1986

---

Phillip specialties are general chancery, Inheritance Act claims and ancillary relief (including civil partnerships).

Phillip lives in the North-East and is regularly instructed to deal with cases in Newcastle and Leeds but is happy to accept instructions to advise and appear anywhere in the country.

His regular instructions includes: real property, wills, trusts, estates, insolvency, partnerships, mortgages, co-ownership of land and houses (Trusts of Land and appointment of Trustees Act, relating to co-habitees), landlord and tenant, boundary disputes, adverse possession claims.

Phillip has a lot of experience of substantial Inheritance Act cases, large divorces.