

Sarah Hannah

Year of Call 2005

Sarah was invited to become a tenant in Chambers in April 2009 having previously completed her pupillage at 2 Paper Buildings.

Sarah undertakes a broad range of both criminal prosecution and criminal defence work in the Youth Court, Magistrates Court and Crown Court. Sarah's practice is predominantly defence based and covers the whole spectrum of criminal law including robbery, fraud, burglary and the supply of drugs. Sarah has a particular interest in Youth crime as well as violent crime.

Before coming to the bar Sarah worked for Bark & Co Solicitors as a paralegal and assisted in the preparation of a number of multi-million pound fraud cases and other reported cases.

Education:

Law with European Law LL.B (Hons): The University of Leeds – 2:1

Bar Vocational Course: The Inns of Court School of Law – Very competent

Call: Gray's Inn, 2005