

Sarah Smith

Year of Call 2006

---

Sarah's main practice areas in Chambers are crime and immigration, including extradition.

She practices in the Youth, Magistrates and Crown Court both defending and prosecuting dealing with the full spectrum of offences.

Before commencing pupillage with 7 Bell Yard Sarah worked on capital murder trials in the Oklahoma Public Defender's office through the UK charity 'Amicus' with whom she has a continuing working relationship. She also completed an internship at the Centre for International Courts and tribunals where she helped draft a research project for the development of a code of practice for the International Bar.

Qualifications:

BVC 2006. College of Law, London.

LLM Public International Law 2005. University College London.

LLB Law 2003. King's College, London.

Awards:

Sir Joseph Priestly Scholarship. Inner Temple

Horace Avory Scholarship. Inner Temple